

Parking Policy & Form

In order to receive a parking permit, this form must be turned into the Management Office with a copy of current and valid vehicle registration. Please bring this form with you when you move-in. Please make a copy for your records.

1. Campus Village is private property.
2. Your first parking permit is free.
3. Replacement parking permits are issued at $20.00 each.
4. Parking permits are non-transferable.
5. Residents must register their vehicle with the Management Office in order to receive a parking permit.
6. Guests or additional vehicles are not permitted in our parking lot and will not be issued parking permits. Guests and/or additional vehicles may park in campus lots and meters provided by Auraria Campus and the city of Denver.
7. You are issued a parking permit that grants you permission to park in your designated lot.
8. The parking permit is valid only for the year that is printed on the permit and the specified lot.
9. You must have an active lease on file with Campus Village.

Examples of Parking Violations:

1. No valid parking permit
2. Double parked or incorrectly parked
3. Parking in a Handicapped space without a Handicap permit
4. Parked in a No Parking zone
5. Other violations at the discretion of the management office
